

WESTERN SUBURBS WEEKLY.
JULY 1 2008

---

IN BRIEF

Quick thinking averts fire disaster

QUICK-THINKING Claremont homeowners averted a potential disaster last week when they called 000 after noticing a chimney on fire in their three-storey home.

Fire and Rescue Service and State Emergency Service volunteers attended the blaze about 9pm on June 25.

The crews quickly extinguished the fire and spent about two hours securing the roof.